Agency DPI Simmary 139 ARC Analyst Kelly Rindfleisch Summary Under current law, a fourth or eighth grade pupil cannot be promoted to the next grade level unless the pupil achieves a school of basic or above. Joint Finance changed that requirement so that beginning in 2002-03, school boards would be required to adopt a written policy specifying the criteria for promoting a pupil from 4th and 5th grade or from 8th to 9th grade, including pupils emotled in charter schools located in the school district. This amendment changes the Joint Finance action to include the following: Require that all criteria established by the school board be limited to academic performance criteria. Require that teacher's recommendation be solely based on a student's academic performance. Statement of future Statement of Fublic Instruction. Amends the JFC action related to Knowledge and Concept Exams.	Department of Public Instruction. Adoption of the plan that was presented by Handicapped Students.	the Joint Legislative Council Special Committee	on Services for Visually
